All Comments:

Karen Osborne, MARICOPA COUNTY: As amended.; Helen Purcell, Self: As amended; Peter Bengtson, Self: This is an important bill and should be passed. Betty and I heard F. Ann Rodriguez speak Wednesday evening. Sounds like these are very desirable things for the county recorders to do. Voters should have a chance to correct defects in early ballots; Willie Stubbs, Self: This bill forces Recorders to contact every person for a defective early ballot which is too great a burden to perform in such a short time forcing the staff to grow exponentially to meet the requirements. Poll voters aren't given the same benefit.; Eleanor Eisenberg, The League Of Women Voters, AZ: The League of Women Voters supports assurance that a vote will be counted and opportunities to correct any errors which would prevent that.; Jen (Sweeney) Marson, AZ ASSOCIATION OF COUNTIES: As amended

All Comments:

Rivko Knox, Self: The Clean Elections Commission was created by the public to make democracy more transparent & accessible to all. I have not heard any outcry from the public that it isn't working. So, what motivates this bill? I wonder???

Jennifer Pawlik, Self: The citizens of AZ voted for the clean elections act in 1998. Now, 18 years later when so much "DARK" money influences politics in this state, we need this program more than ever before. Do not repeal clean elections.;

Joseph Seelye, Self: Why the attack on voters and voter's protections. Let's get this state back on track and make it a state that we can all be proud to live in again.;

Cheryl Hasebe, Self: I am a constituent. The Citizens Clean Elections Commission was created by the citizens of Arizona to be an independent and impartial body that improves the integrity of Arizona state government, which they do! I urge you to vote no!;

Mariana Spier, Self: I urge you to vote NO on H.C.R.2013. The Citizens Clean Elections Commission was created by the citizens of Arizona!;

Barbara Matteson, Self: Oppose this bill. This bad bill.;

Deborah Zajac, Self: Do not waste money trying to repeal Clean Elections Commission. It improves the integrity of the Arizona State government.;

Alice Stambaugh, Self: Why would anyone be against having clean elections?;

anne schneider, Self: Too much money, secret, from too few people is destroying our democracy. clean elections has been at the forefront of fighting for disclosure and reigning in the influence of money in elections. Anne Schneider, retired professor. Vote no please;

Gini McGirr, League Of Women Voters Of AZ: Please vote NO on HCR2013. The Clean Elections was put into effect by the people and you should leave it alone.;

Gini McGirr, Self: Clean Elections Commission should be left alone. This commission is needed. I oppose Bill HCR2013.;

Peter Bengtson, Self: This is a bad idea, the legislature should do all they can to retain and expand the Clean Elections program.;

Willie Stubbs, Self: Candidates shouldn't have to answer to the SOS and to the Clean Elections Commission. The U.S. Supreme Court struck down the matching funds provisions as unconstitutional, so the Act is worthless.;

Doris Marie Provine, Self: What a time to be considering a bill to kill Clean Elections! This voter-adopted initiative represents the desire of Arizona voters to have candidates speak to them directly, even if they are not big donors. Reject this bad bill by a unanimous vote;

Arthur Rogers, Self: The Clean Elections Program has earned my respect as an Arizona citizen and independent voter. To refer this to another vote will waste money needed in the upcoming budget. Please vote NO.;

Jacob Schmitt, Self: Removing the independent oversight committee for elections is not in the best interest of Arizonans.;

Nick Collins, Self: Why does it seem like the Republicans in the Legislature are always going against the will of the people? I think having Clean Elections (and an Independent Redistricting Commission) is good for AZ. Please OPPOSE this bill.;

Eleanor Eisenberg, The League Of Women Voters, AZ: The League of Women Voters supports public financing and the regulatory function of AZ Clean Elections. It should not be repealed.;

Bill Gates, Self: With state and national elections so dominated by dark money and big donors, the Clean Elections system is a bright beacon of hope for regular citizens. The system works well. Do not alter it in any way.;

Carol Maas, Self: This effort is an affront to voters and the election process they put in place for Arizona. Clean Elections is a way to keep money and its influence out of elections. It also is a non-partisan voice that voters have to protect their right.;

Robert Young, Self: I was a candidate for House Legislative District 15, 2006, in the Democratic Primary, and the adverse experience of Citizens for Clean Elections is what I would like to share.

Eric Spencer, AZ SECRETARY OF STATE

Oppose:

Willie Stubbs, representing self

All Comments:

Willie Stubbs, Self: I believe the intention of this bill is great, but by specifying 20% it creates an escape clause where 6 or more donors can give equal support and keep their dark money status.

All Comments:

Rivko Knox, Self: AZ fought for the right to have an initiative and referendum in our Constitution; and how the Legislature wants to 'mess' with that right, which is 'not right.!!!; anne schneider, Self: I realize that democracy may be messy at times, but once people vote for an initiative or referendum, the legislature should have to send it back to them if they want it changed. Please vote no. Anne Schneider, retired, professor of political sci; Gini McGirr, Self: please vote NO on hCR2043.; Peter Bengtson, Self: The Voter Protection Act needs to remain in the Arizona Constitution as is. The legislature should not try and amend this without obtaining the current 3/4 vote.; Willie Stubbs, Self: I'm for this referendum because it deserves to be put to a vote. I'm sure the voters will defeat it because they feel the legislature is deaf to their will.; Doris Marie Provine, Self: The clear intent of this bill is to "reign in" the citizens' initiative. The founders of this state would be appalled, but not surprised by this effort. That is why they introduced the citizens' initiative after all. Reject this bad bill!; Sandy Bahr, Sierra Club - Grand Canyon Chapter: This measure proposes to significantly weaken the Voter Protection provisions in the Arizona Constitution.; Jack Wilborn, Self: This is not supporting your constituents. Please do not support this bill; Arthur Rogers, Self: This bill will run around citizens who have voted for restrictions. The legislature should represent Arizona citizens and not modify their wishes. Please vote NO.; Bill Gates, Self: The Initiative system works just fine. Do not damage citizens' rights to participate directly in the legislative process. This would water down the right.; Carol Maas, Self: Once again, it appears the Republican party knows more than the voters! This is a power grab if this passes. At that point, voters will be engaged and will shut this down as they did before with petitions of opposition. Quit wasting our time/money!; Brian Hummell, American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network: ACS CAN is opposed to this proposal. It would jeopardize potential tobacco tax increases -- the most proven way to reduce tobacco use.; Nicole Olmstead, American Heart Association: This proposal, if passed, jeopardizes future tobacco taxes passed by voters. Increased tobacco taxes is one of the primary ways to prevent smoking initiation and encourage those who are smoking to quit.; Nickolas Reachmack, Self: Of the, by the, and for the people is not just the privilege of legislatures. Our speech should not be erased.

PROVISIONS

1. Prohibits this state, any agency or political subdivision from requiring an entity with an Internal Revenue Code (IRC) charitable tax exemption under 501(c)(3) to register as a political committee or file statements if the entity does not spend a substantial amount of time or assets on influencing any federal, state or local legislation, referendum, initiative or constitutional amendment.

CURRENT LAW

Arizona, any agency or political subdivision is prohibited from requiring a person to register as a political committee if the person is a religious assembly or institution that does not spend a substantial amount of time or assets within the meaning of the IRC, on influencing any federal, state or local legislation, referendum, initiative or constitutional amendment (A.R.S. § 16-922).

OVERVIEW

HB 2297 modifies sponsor disclosure requirements for an independent expenditure made for campaign literature or advertisements by a political committee.

PROVISIONS

1. Requires literature or advertisements to include the names and telephone numbers of up to three political committees making the largest contributions that, in the aggregate for that political committee, constitutes 20% or more of the total amount of contributions to the political committee making the independent expenditure.
2. Makes technical changes.

CURRENT LAW

A political committee that makes an expenditure for campaign literature or advertisements expressly advocating the election or defeat of any candidate or makes any solicitation of contributions to any political committee must include the words "paid for by" followed by the name of the political committee appearing on the statement of organization or exemption statement. Bumper stickers, pins, buttons, pens and similar small items that cannot conveniently contain the required printed statements or signs paid for by a candidate as specified are exempt from the "paid for" requirement.

Additionally, if the expenditure for the literature or advertisement is an independent expenditure, the political committee must disclose the names and telephone numbers of the three political committees making the largest contribution to the political committee. Only those contributions made during the calendar year the independent expenditure is made are used for determining the disclosure of the three contributors.

Independent expenditure is defined as an expenditure by a person or committee, other than a candidate's campaign committee, that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate made without cooperation, consultation or in concert with, or at the request or suggestion of a candidate, committee or agent of the candidate (A.R.S. § 16-901).

House Engrossed

OVERVIEW

HCR 2043, upon voter approval, modifies the Legislature's power to amend, divert or supersede (revise) a voter-approved ballot initiative or referendum measure.

PROVISIONS

1. Allows the Legislature to revise a ballot initiative or referendum measure approved 2016 or later if:
 - a. the Legislature approves the revision by a greater percentage than the percentage of voters that approved the initiative or referendum; and
 - b. for measures approved by two-thirds of the votes cast, the revision must further the purpose.
2. Requires the SOS to submit this proposition to the voters at the next general election.

CURRENT LAW

In 1998 voters passed Proposition 105 that amended the Arizona Constitution relating to initiative and referendum measures. The Legislature does not have the power to repeal an initiative or referendum measure decided or approved by a majority of the votes cast; however, the Legislature may amend, supersede or transfer funds designated by the initiative or referendum if: 1) the amending legislation furthers the purpose of the measure; and 2) receives at least three-fourths vote of the members of each house of the Legislature by a roll call vote (Arizona Constitution, Article IV, Part 1, § 1).
